Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings from sunny Mexico! Since my arrival, I've been immersed in various ministry opportunities. I've been serving in children's church, singing specials, and sharing the Gospel with those around me.

Recently, I shared my ministry with our churches in Yautepec, Orizaba, and Cuautla. We were happy to host Brother Don Davis and his wife, Cindee. During their visit, we organized two pastor's conferences in Cuautla and Orizaba, where I was blessed to share my ministry and connect with several pastors who responded positively to the need for Bible translation.

I've also been teaching ladies' classes, which have been a rewarding experience. Additionally, I met a young Nahuatl woman, Xochilt, in Orizaba, Veracruz and plan to share the Gospel with her soon. Please pray that I can learn more phrases in her language and that God will open her heart.

In the coming weeks, my schedule is filling up with visits. In March, I'll be presenting the ministry at a missions' conference in Guanajuato, where my father will also be preaching. I'll also be sharing the ministry in Monterey. Please pray for traveling mercies.

We're excited to host Pastor Mike Ray and his wife starting on March 10th. During their visit, the churches in Cuautla and Orizaba will be hosting family conferences. We'll also be conducting a Vacation Bible School (VBS), and Brother Gustavo Diaz, a businessman from Mexico City, has generously donated toys and candy to use as promotion. We're currently seeking permission from local neighborhoods to use their soccer fields or basketball courts as gathering points. Please pray that the Lord gives me wisdom as I work to organize this outreach.

By God's grace, my health is doing well. Recently, I experienced a setback after a bad fall a couple of weeks ago, the pain caused by this fall was affecting my sleep and mobility. Thankfully, my father's care and provision enabled both my mother and me to receive chiropractic care, which has greatly improved the situation.

In my personal studies, I'm continuing to learn Greek, Hebrew, and Tagalog.

Thank you for your prayers and support.

Prayer requests:
