Dear praying friends,

I'm grateful to share updates with you after spending over a month with the X'iu'I tribal group in San Luis Potosi, Mexico. Before rejoining my parents, I had the privilege of sharing the gospel with two more precious X'iu'I souls: a boy named Peter and his mother. His mother has already made a profession of faith, and Peter heard the gospel for the first time.

I also completed a small medical study on the health needs of the Aeta tribe, which Dr. Santos has received and will use to advise on how to best proceed. I'm currently working on an exegesis for I John, which I'll present to Dr. Santos for feedback. This process is important, as it ensures that the translator understands a book or section of Scripture before beginning a translation.

While visiting the US with my family, I presented my ministry at "Buckhorn Baptist Church," and was blessed to see my letters on the bulletin board, thank you for your prayers!

My father and I have been going on visitation almost daily to Yautepec, and by God's grace, we had 15 visitors and 12 professions of faith on Sunday, June 21st. Praise the Lord! We celebrated Father's Day, and it was a blessing to see the church full of men seeking to bring their children up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. I've had the privilege of teaching children and sharing the gospel with them this month, which is a great blessing. I've also enjoyed being part of the church's music ministry and recently purchased a ukulele to build upon what I learned on the X'iu'I mountains.

This past Sunday, we had several visitors, including a young pastor from Puebla who will be helping my father with the work here in Yautepec. We're currently lining up meetings for me in both the US and Mexico, and praise God, every Sunday in July is now booked! I am currently at approximately 50% of my projected needed support and praise God for His provision. Please continue to pray for my meetings and support, as we hope for a mid-October or early November return to the Philippines.

Thank you for your prayers and support. I'm grateful for your partnership in this ministry.

- Guidance and wisdom for the upcoming meetings and ministry opportunities.

- Protection and provision for my travels and ministry work.

- Continued growth and discipleship for the communities we're serving.

- Strength and encouragement for my family and me as we serve the Lord.

- Fruitful ministry and evangelism in Mexico and Philippines.

I praise God for all he has done!

Working for His word,

Faith Duke
