Dear Praying Friends,

I trust that you are enjoying the Lord's blessings this fall.

Greetings from Orange, California.

Our daughter, Faith, is preparing to go to the Philippines to start work on a Bible translation for a tribal group. She had visited a few churches in the US and several churches in Mexico to raise support for the project. Last October she went to the Philippines for 3 months to do research for the project. She needs more support. She doesn't drive. So, we came out of Mexico at the end of August to take her to some churches to present her ministry. We visited some churches in Louisiana, one in Mississippi and one in Alabama. Two churches took her on for support and it appears that more churches from that area are going to take her on.

Then we drove to Missouri and dropped Eneyde off at our daughter Meriam's place and Faith and I flew out here to California to visit some churches. It appears that a few more churches here are going to take her on for support. We will be here until the end of October. On Wednesday, October 30th, I will take Faith to Tijuana, Mexico where she will take a flight to Tuxtla-Gutierrez, Chiapas. She will be speaking in some churches to raise support. The 31st, I should be flying back to Missouri to pick up Eneyde and then we will be driving back to Mexico. Please pray for Faith, she is only raising 1200.00 USD and has about 2/3 of it at present. She will be working under Pastor Joel Byram's ministry—Open Door World Wide. We should be flying to Seattle on January 2nd to spend some time with Pastor Byram and fly out to the Philippines January 5th. I will be there with Faith for about 10 days and then return to Mexico. And my baby girl, Faith, will stay on the mission field on the other side of the world. God is good. I am so thankful that Faith loves the Lord and is obeying His will. We will miss her, but there is nothing better than to know that your children love the Lord and are honoring Him with their lives.

We have meetings for this Sunday and next Wednesday, but we do not have a meeting for Sunday October 26th for Faith to present her ministry. Please pray that the Lord will open a door for her.

Thank you for praying for us. While we have been in the US, Brother Esteban Rodriguez has been preaching in the church in Yautepec. They have been seeing people saved and several visitors in the church. We are thankful that we have seen the Lord work in the services where we have been. Faith's ministry has been well received. She has met people that will be supporting her in prayer which is so important. The Lord has allowed me to preach in several churches as we have travelled and He has worked in people's hearts.

Thank you for having a part in our service to the Lord.

Yours for world evangelism,

Peter & Eneyde Duke
